

Simple Sayings to use with Noncompliant Children

Seriously?

Never mind, I will just do It

It's been discussed now you decide

That's not how it works

You benefit, so you should participate

Think for a second, be smart about this

That make no sense

Are you going to keep your agreements or not?

Let it go for now, but learn a lesson later

Are you going to do what's right or not?

It's not fun but it is important

Do it or don't do it

Do it now so you don't forget later

I'm not going to fight to get you to do what is right

I am not going to argue with a "7 year old"

Think about this

You know what's right, now do what's right

This is an issue of kindness/helpfulness/maturity

No worries, we can practice later

You are making a mistake, please don't make this mistake

Don't let your feelings fool you

It's time to... (Instead of I need you to)

We always do it this way

It's not an order, it's a reminder

If you're not going to do this, then what are you going to do?